

Ontario Student named Canada National Champion in Microsoft Excel

Ontario Student to Represent Canada in 2014 Microsoft Office Specialist World Championship

Langley, B.C. Canada – July 2, 2014

CCI Learning is pleased to announce the Canadian Excel 2010 winner of the 2014 Microsoft Office Specialist Nationals Championship. Florence Ngan will be representing Canada in the 2014 Microsoft Office Specialist World Championships in Anaheim, California on July 27-30, 2014.

The 2014 Microsoft Office Specialist World Championship is a global competition that tests students' skills in Microsoft Office Word, Excel, and PowerPoint. Top students are invited to represent their respective countries at the World Championship.

Last year, the Microsoft Office Specialist World Championships attracted more than 344,000 unique candidates from 90 countries. This year, Microsoft is expecting more candidates from all over the world. Candidates will compete for a chance to win a $5,000 scholarship and the title of "World Champion" in their respective categories.

Florence, a double-degree honours student taking Actuarial Science and Statistics at University of Waterloo and in Business Administration at Wilfrid Laurier University, ranked number one in all of Canada in the Excel 2010 category. Florence was able to train and test for Excel 2010 at the PRISMRESOURCES labs at Wilfrid Laurier University. Florence has won an all-expenses paid trip to Disneyland in Anaheim, California to compete against world class competitors in the Microsoft Office Specialist World Championships for the top spot in Microsoft Office Excel 2010.

Not only is this an amazing opportunity for Florence to represent Canada in the Microsoft Office Specialist World Championships, but she has already proven highly competent in a skillset vital for career success.

CCI Learning, the Microsoft Academy Service Partner and exclusive Certiport Platinum Solutions Provider for Canada, is proud to sponsor students like Florence who continue to exceed all expectations. Malcolm Knox, President and CEO of CCI Learning, comments, "Florence is clearly a gifted student, who devotes a considerable amount of time to the development of her career. She has recognised the value of Microsoft Excel certification in her future career in risk management, and along the way has scored so highly, she has been recognized as Canada's best in using Microsoft Excel."
