

Alberta Student named Canada National Champion in Microsoft Word

Alberta Student to Represent Canada in 2014 Microsoft Office Specialist World Championship

Langley, B.C. Canada – July 2, 2014

CCI Learning is pleased to announce the Canadian Word 2010 winner of the 2014 Microsoft Office Specialist Nationals Championship. Mckayla Saint-Cyr will be representing Canada in the 2014 Microsoft Office Specialist World Championships in Anaheim, California on July 27-30, 2014.

The 2014 Microsoft Office Specialist World Championship is a global competition that tests students' skills in Microsoft Office Word, Excel, and PowerPoint. Top students are invited to represent their respective countries at the World Championship.

Last year, the Microsoft Office Specialist World Championships attracted more than 344,000 unique candidates from 90 countries. This year, Microsoft is expecting more candidates from all over the world. Candidates will compete for a chance to win a $5,000 scholarship and the title of "World Champion" in their respective categories.

Mckayla, a student at SAIT Polytechnic in Calgary ranked number one in all of Canada in the Word 2010 category. Mckayla has won an all-expenses paid trip to Disneyland in Anaheim, California to compete against world class competitors in the Microsoft Office Specialist World Championships for the top spot in Microsoft Office Word 2010. Her instructor, Ruby Brar will be coming to cheer her on. "This will be such a fantastic experience for Mckayla to showcase the skills she has gained while competing and meeting with students from all over the world," says Brar.

CCI Learning, the Microsoft Academy Service Partner and exclusive Certiport Platinum Solutions Provider for Canada, is proud to sponsor students like Mckayla who continue to exceed all expectations. Malcolm Knox, President and CEO of CCI Learning, comments, "SAIT has a long track record of producing Canada's top Microsoft Office Specialists. Every year we are thrilled to witness the high performance of AIM students at SAIT. Mckayla has demonstrated that she has the highest levels of productivity when working with documents in Microsoft Word. We are pleased to announce her as the Canada National Champion of Microsoft Word.
