

High School Student from Maple Ridge, BC named Canada National Champion in Microsoft PowerPoint

High School Student from Maple Ridge B.C. to Represent Canada in 2014 Microsoft Office Specialist World Championship

Langley, B.C. Canada – July 2, 2014

CCI Learning is pleased to announce the Canadian PowerPoint 2010 winner of the 2014 Microsoft Office Specialist Nationals Championship. Anthony Wock will be representing Canada in the 2014 Microsoft Office Specialist World Championships in Anaheim, California on July 27-30, 2014.

The 2014 Microsoft Office Specialist World Championship is a global competition that tests students' skills in Microsoft Office Word, Excel, and PowerPoint. Top students are invited to represent their respective countries at the World Championship.

Last year, the Microsoft Office Specialist World Championships attracted more than 344,000 unique candidates from 90 countries. This year, Microsoft is expecting more candidates from all over the world. Candidates will compete for a chance to win a $5,000 scholarship and the title of "World Champion" in their respective categories.

Anthony, a student from Samuel Robertson Technical Secondary School in Maple Ridge, B.C. ranked number one in all of Canada in the PowerPoint 2010 category. Anthony has won an all-expenses paid trip to Disneyland in Anaheim, California to compete against world class competitors in the Microsoft Office Specialist World Championships for the top spot in Microsoft Office PowerPoint 2010.

Samuel Robertson Technical Secondary School IT Teacher, Brad Dingler is very proud of Anthony's hard work and dedication saying, "This is amazing. The opportunity for Anthony to represent Canada in the Microsoft Office Specialist World Championships is unbelievable. He is the shining example of what students are capable of accomplishing, if given the chance. "

CCI Learning, the Microsoft Academy Service Partner and exclusive Certiport Platinum Solutions Provider for K12 in Canada, is proud to sponsor students like Anthony who continue to exceed all expectations. Malcolm Knox, President and CEO of CCI Learning, comments, "We are seeing more young students from High Schools showing their potential. These skills are required by all students that want to compete in this digital age, but being the number one student in all of Canada for PowerPoint 2010 is highly impressive and an accomplishment that should not be overlooked. This is a remarkable success for Samuel Robertson Technical Secondary School, School District 42, Maple Ridge, and British Columbia!"
